

Andis Company Fact Sheet

Andis Company is a leading manufacturer of handheld tools to clip, trim, dry, curl and straighten hair. Barbers, salon professionals, consumers, hotels, motels, resorts, animal groomers and shearers purchase the company's products in more than 90 countries and territories around the world. Founded in 1922, Andis Company remains a private, family-held business.

World Headquarters:	1800 Renaissance Blvd., Sturtevant, WI 53177 1-800-558-9441
Website:	www.andis.com
Employees:	Approx. 600
Markets Served:	North America, Central/S. America, Europe and Asia Pacific
Industry Sectors:	Beauty & Barber Consumer/At-Home Grooming Small Animal Grooming Equine & Livestock Grooming Hotels/Hospitality
Leadership:	Matthew K. Andis, President Laura Andis-Bishop, Senior Vice President, Finance
Mission:	Creating your legacy with exceptional products
Vision:	Every style. Every groom. Every cut. Always Andis.
Values:	Excellence - Never settling for good enough Respect - Valuing what's important to others Integrity - Being responsible and accountable
Interesting Facts:	In 1922, the entrepreneurial Mathew Andis invented an electric barber clipper and started making them in his home's basement in Racine, Wisconsin USA. Every Master clipper and T-Outliner trimmer in existence has been manufactured and assembled in Racine County, Wisconsin USA. Andis Company has never downsized or laid off associates in its company history. The Andis Company makes millions of clipper and trimmer blades in Wisconsin every year.